Home stories

Dirkje is a Dutch baby and children's clothing brand that offers high-quality clothing in sizes 44 (newborn) to 116. Our collections are characterized by beautiful quality, stylish prints, and rich details, but affordability is also one of our key values. Our extensive collection of adorable playsuits, rompers, and hip and cool sets are loved by many moms and dads.

As we embark on our Spring Summer '25 campaign, Dirkje is excited to introduce a new direction inspired by the essence of "home stories." These are the cherished moments of making memories with your little ones in and around the home. It's within these intimate spaces that we find the greatest sense of security, where everyone can truly be themselves, and where families grow and develop together.

Our latest collection is designed to encapsulate these precious memories – those tender moments in the kitchen, the laughter-filled playtimes, the comforting routines just before bedtime, and the joyous times spent in the garden under the warm sun. Each piece in our collection reflects the simplicity and beauty of these everyday experiences.

The Dirkje Spring Summer '25 collection brings to life the heartfelt stories we create within our homes. Every garment is thoughtfully designed to support and enhance these special times, with practical features that cater to both parents and children. Whether it's a romper that makes diaper changes a breeze or a playful set that stands up to the rigors of active play, our collection is as functional as it is beautiful.

Love,
Dirkje

PS. We recently achieved our GOTS certification. A big step forward in our journey towards a more sustainable future. Let's nurture the planet for our little ones. Learn more about our journey towards sustainability. Click here
